

PArT 2014 - Event Highlights - 18-24 September 2014

ABSA is loaning Peter Magubane's Travelling Exhibition

Photographic prints and images on video:
A Struggle without documentation is no Struggle

Street Art Projects

- Artist Usha Seejarim (renowned for her public art projects) will work with local people to create a Pebble Mosaic alongside pathway that connects North End to town.
- Walls in town and in North End selected for mural art. Falko One has been invited to inspire/train/supervise.
- On Saturday 20 September, Gareth Williams and Sam Reinders will draw in people with cell phones for an afternoon of InstaWalk.

Thupelo

is underwriting an artists' workshop of 20 visiting artists in the Skougrond premises for two weeks from 11-24 September. The workshop will be a space in which artists are able to experiment and find different forms of expression and exchange ideas, techniques and disciplines.

Flippen Vlambaar

Alex Hamilton is curating a group show introducing renowned artists including Cobus van Bosch, Hubert Barichievy, Olaf Bisschoff, Christiaan Diedericks, Stephen Rosin, Falko One, Hannalie Taute, Conrad Botes and Brett Murray.

Photographic Installations

- Derek McKenzie's examples of 'graffiti' images from Gustav Roller's Calitzdorp wall.
- Roger Young is committed to a selection of images of 'home' within a small rural community.
- A selection of Harry de Zitter's photographs is brought home to the Karoo.
- Louis Botha is showing the series 'Karoo Portraits'.
- Gareth Williams is exhibiting a selection of Karoo landscapes

For Children

PArT14 is supporting the efforts of local artists who want to nurture the creativity of young Prince Alberters. Christine Thomas assisted by Hanli Marais and Lisl Barry, will facilitate and document art projects with primary and hostel children:

Lectures

- A conversation between Peter Magubane and Andre Jaquet
- Niel Jonker "Contemporary en plein air landscape painting"
- Christine Thomas "Decoding the art of young children"
- Cobus van Bosch "The trouble with memory, the human condition in SA's past"
- Toby Orford - "How Art and law can work together"

Workshops

- Neels Coetzee teaches how to paint the Karoo (6 hours over two mornings).
- Niel Jonker - Landscape Painting on site (2x3 hours)
- Louis Botha Photography Workshops (2x 3 hours)
- Andre du Toit and JP Meyer teach the art of painting portraits.
- Roger Young on how to photograph people 'from the hip' and why

This Programme Is Subject To Change

Check with the Prince Albert Gallery for any additions or changes to the daily programme, especially those events noted (tbc)!!

Tickets for all events available at the Prince Albert Gallery, Seven Arches Building, 57 Church Street